LOCAL SCHOOL BUSINESS LEADER RECEIVES RECOGNITION

Bruce Lamprecht recently obtained the designation of Registered School Business Official from the Association of School Business Officials International (ASBO).

The Professional Registration Program promotes quality school business management and encourages excellence among its practitioners. ASBO International's Professional Registration designation is one of the highest honors of professional achievement in the field of school business management.

Recipients of the RSBO title must meet or exceed ASBO International's criteria, which includes earning a degree in higher education, maintaining active membership in ASBO International, having significant experience as a school business administrator, and receiving a recommendation from their superintendent attesting to their experience and qualifications.

Founded in 1910, ASBO is a professional association that provides programs and services to promote the highest standards of school business management practices, professional growth, and the effective use of educational resources.
